New Exhibition at the Poetry Center:
Lie Quietly – New Works by Karen Green

August 13, 2014, Tucson Arizona—The Poetry Center is proud to present new collection of work by artist Karen Green. Green is an artist and writer whose recent poetry art book Bough Down (Siglio, 2013) has been called "the most moving, strange, original, harrowing, and beautiful document of grief and reckoning I've read", by the Los Angeles Review of Books and "a profound, lovely, bitterly funny book that fulfills the requirement of great art: it is magical" by George Saunders. Bough Down has received The Believer Poetry Award and has been included in many "Best of 2013" lists, such as at Slate, NPR, and The New Republic. Green's work has also been published in Open City and anthologized in Bound to Last: 30 Writers on Their Most Cherished Book. Her visual work is collected by individuals as well as institutions including the Yale Beinecke Library and the Whitney Museum of American Art special collections. She exhibits with the Space gallery in Los Angeles and the Calabi gallery in Northern California. Green’s other work can be viewed at http://www.beautifulcrap.com.

Exhibit Opens September 26th and runs until December 10th.

Reception: Meet the Artist! A reception for the artist will be held Friday, September 26th from 5-6.30 p.m. Open to the public.

Press about Karen Green:
http://www.theguardian.com/books/2011/apr/10/karen-green-david-foster-wallace-interview http://www.theparisreview.org/blog/2013/12/19/karen-greens-bough-down/
The University of Arizona Poetry Center is housed in one of three landmark buildings for poetry in the nation. In addition to its world-renowned collection of contemporary poetry, the Poetry Center is known for its long running readings and lecture series, international symposia, classes and workshops, writers’ residencies, and a wide range of programs for children and youth. For more information, please visit poetry.arizona.edu or call (520) 626-3765.