

POETRY OUT LOUD

CONTEST YEAR 2023

2019 Regional Finalist

Anya Moseke

What is Poetry Out Loud?

Drawing upon elements of spoken word, theater, and slam poetry, Poetry Out Loud cultivates an appreciation of poetry that goes beyond the page. Poetry Out Loud promotes the creativity of performing poetry, not just reading it.

Poetry Out Loud is a national poetry recitation competition for high school students beginning in the classroom and culminating in the National Finals in Washington, D.C. where over $50,000 is awarded in scholarships and school stipends.

Participants of Poetry Out Loud select a poem—a poem that speaks to them personally—from an online anthology of over 1,100 poems. They work to memorize this poem and craft a unique performance, making the poem their own—making the written word come alive.

Why Poetry Out Loud?

- Reciting and performing poetry fosters self-confidence and emotional maturity.
- Poetry Out Loud creates lifelong lovers of poetry and creative writing.
- Students are often inspired to write their own poetry and share their work with peers.
- Poetry Out Loud engages and challenges a variety of learners.
- The process of analyzing, interpreting, and performing poetry develops critical thinking and analytical skills helpful in other subjects.

How it Works

- Step 1: Register your school via the link <https://poetry.arizona.edu/poetry-out-loud>
- Step 2: Select a poem from the online anthology.
- Step 3: Host a competition at your school or local organization with at least two participants.*
- Step 4: Winners advance to regional and/or state finals, and then on to National Finals in Washington, D.C.

*Students who can't participate in a school or local organization should contact their Poetry Out Loud state coordinator to discuss other opportunities for inclusion in the state's official competition
