

Agenda:

For this activity you will need

- Your imagination
- Something to write with, drawing materials
- Printer for worksheet (if not follow prompted question on a piece of paper)

Writing prompt: Behold my pet

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER

- If you had the opportunity to create a pet, any pet, how would it look?
- Would your pet be a combination of all your favorite animals?
- How would it sound?
- How would it move?
- What kind of personality would it have?
- When thinking about this pet, how does it remind you of yourself?
- What would you name it?

Create a poem

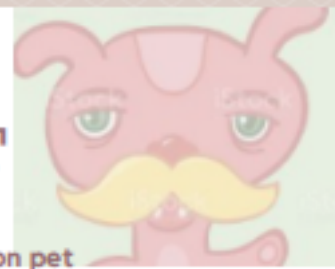

- Use a blank paper to answer questions to consider.
- Use the worksheet to formulate the poem.
- Remember to use your imagination. Your animal does not have to have normal colors, sounds or looks.

Draw your pet

BEHOLD MY PET

A WRITING PROMPT

Write a poem describing a one and a million pet

Name:

Date:

Poem name :

Insert name of the pet your inventing

Behold my pet _____ (insert name)

use descriptive language to show the readers what your pet looks/ sound like?

what is your pet made with?

Behold my pet _____ (Insert name)

Describe your pets personality use a simile to describe how amazing it would be to see this pet come to life.

End this poem with a line describing how this pet is similar to you.

