I understand that if accepted for the docent program I will need to attend all class sessions of the “History of the Poetry Center” training course that runs Tuesday evenings, September – October. In addition to this introductory class, I also commit to attend once-a-month meetings held the second or third Saturday from September – April. Those class and meeting dates are made available on the website. I understand that the program requires docents to make a monthly volunteer commitment of 10 hours or more. Acceptance to the docent program is contingent upon a completed application and successful interview with Poetry Center staff.
